

2014 Greentree Festival
Committee Minutes
June 25, 2014

MEMBERS IN ATTENDANCE: Becky Engelbrecht, Cindy Coombs, Kathy Barthelmass, Todd Barthelmass, Lloyd Todd, Bob Mosby, Bob Miller, Kirk Hutchison, Tricia Biere, Gerry DeWulf, Joe Walsh, Gerry Biedenstein, Linda Ross, Mike Keehn, Peggy Childress, Pat Jones, Mary Hussman, Murray Pounds, Alvin Reid

Photo of 2014 Committee members taken in Kirkwood Park.

Minutes of May 28, 2014 meeting approved.

LOGO, BROCHURE DISCUSSION - 2014 Greentree Festival logo for shirts approved! There was discussion of what to put on back of shirts, which tentatively was set as "Committee Member." Committee heads asked to review draft brochure for any changes and/or additions.

PARADE MARSHAL - A discussion was held of possible candidates. More discussion is planned for July meeting.

BOY SCOUTS - A troop of Boy Scouts inquired about spending a night in park during festival. For safety reasons, this proposal was turned down – committee noted the great work of Boy Scouts.

COMMITTEE REPORTS

PARK LOGISTICS – All running smoothly with detailed update in July.

PARADE LOGISTICS – All running smoothly, again great interest in participation.

MUSIC – Most bands are booked, as Bob Mosby continues working to fill a couple of slots. Possible addition of Blues band. Sunday lineup includes Cree Family Band, Thin Dimes, Falling Fences and Susan Marting performing between sets. Another possible band could be Barley Alive.

ROTARY RAMBLE – Bob Miller reported the Ramble is progressing smoothly. The event will be included in the brochure and that the organization is thrilled to be part of Greentree.

FOOD/BEVERAGES – Kirk Hutchison reported that beer has been ordered. Food aplenty will also be available.

KIDS DAY – Tricia Biere says S&S Farms has been booked and that activities planning progressing smoothly.

CITY COUNCIL – Councilman Gerry Biedenstein thanks all committee members for "fantastic work."

PARTY IN PARK – Linda Ross reports that Sept. 6 will be a great night with dancing, music, food trucks and fun.

CAR SHOW – Mike Keehn reports that 2014 car show “is rolling along” smoothly with many great participants.

PARADE – Peggy Childress reports that all trophies have been ordered, including one for Best Church entry.

ARTS AND CRAFTS – Mary Hussman reports that the booths are “more than full” with a combination of long-time participants and newbies. With the change in park dimensions, committee recognized her work to provide space for as many booths as possible.

FOLKLIFE – Pat Jones reported that over 40 artisans are participating, with potentially a couple of more to be included.

NEW BUSINESS – Murray Pounds announced that the Greentree Festival has been honored as a St. Louis magazine A-List winner as “Best Family Friendly Festival.”

Meeting adjourned at 7:58 p.m.