

2014 GREENTREE FESTIVAL

COMMITTEE MINUTES

August 27, 2014

MEMBERS IN ATTENDANCE: Becky Engelbrecht, Cindy Coombs, Kathy Barthelmass, Todd Barthelmass, Curt Carron, Bill Burckhalter, Katie Burckhalter, Jim Cox, Lloyd Todd, Kristen Docter, Tricia Biere, Kirk Hutchison, Bob Mosby, Deb Zisser, Steve Knapp, Carol Carpenter, Mary Hussman, Mike Hedrick, Linda Ross, Peggy Childress, Pat Jones, Kevin Miller, Murray Pounds, Alvin Reid.

Minutes Approved from July 23, 2014 meeting

Murray Pounds requested committee members check Greentree Festival website and report the need for any changes or updates that are required.

Mike Hedrick was introduced and will be helping Mike Keehn with Auto Show.

Committee members and chairs urged to sign up for shifts at Information Booth. Committee members urged to get any changes in logistical requests in ASAP.

2014 Greentree Festival Committee T shirts distributed to members present.

Peggy Childress, a 25-year Greentree Committee member, introduced as Parade Marshal after the unanimous approval of her selection for that role.

Party in the Park tickets were distributed and committee members asked to distribute to friends and family.

The live City Council Invitation to the festival via a live performance was planned for Sept. 4 at Council Meeting

Set up on the festival grounds will begin the Thursday before Greentree.

Anyone who can volunteer to help Friday (Sept. 12) during day is welcome.

Committee members who have vendors to pay need to turn in paperwork to Murray Pounds. If health department forms are needed, notify Murray.

Friday shuttle officially added and will run from 6 – 10:00 p.m..

COMMITTEE REPORTS

LOGISTICS – Ready to go.

POLICE – All good to go. Noted that people with horses in the parade can park in west area of park near firing range.

KID'S Day – All is good to go.

FOOD, BEVERAGE – All ordered and ready.

MUSIC – Two youth bands will perform, including School of Rock Noon – 2 p.m. Saturday.

ARTS & CRAFTS – Spaces will be marked on Tuesday afternoon.

FIRE DEPT. - No live burn demonstration will be held this year. Everything else is prepared and ready.

PHOTOS - Let Bill and Katie Burckhalter know of anything or anyone special for photo opps.

CAR SHOW – Trying to get 100 vehicles entered in the show. Pre-registration will be held the morning of the event. Staff will check on signage for car show to be posted at the north entrance of Kirkwood Park.

PARADE – Entry cutoff is Friday (August 29). Checking on vehicles for Mayor and City Council.

PARTY IN PARK – All set to go with Boogie Chyld and Disco Ball. Checking on glow sticks.

FOLK LIFE – All is set to go.