REVIEW OF THE February 2016 COMMITTEE REPORT:

Correction: Becky's name was misspelled in the body of the minutes.

THEME LOGO FINALIZATION:

Murray sent out a mockup of the logo to everyone. Everyone LOVES it.

COMMITTEE SHIRTS:

Color of the shirt maybe a heather grey. Discussion of the shirt began. We are trying to have only 4 colors. Thoughts of having the red area at the bottom of the shirt made into a crater. Maybe make the craters black.

PALAROO FESTIVAL "APP"

Murray was approached for the Greentree Festival to have an "app". Palaroo will put a map of the event and you can have as much information as you would like. You can print from the app, you can do a search on it The Parks staff would do the data input. Everyone attending the event could see our information. The cost is $200.

Alvin made a motion for all in favor. It was unanimously approved.

Debbie Zisser, Party In The Park

Serendipity has bought a food truck called Fire and Ice. The truck is available for the Party In The Park.

Jim Biekert, Volunteer

I've been going around town soliciting people and businesses for the parade. Still have a lot of places to hit like Club Taco and Mod Pizza.

Bob Mosby, Entertainment/Rotary

Bob has two reports this month.

Entertainment:

Bob has the following bands signed:

Motown Revue, Funky Butt Brass Band, Jeremiah Johnson, Falling Fences and Miss Jubilee

Rotary:

Rotary Ramble is putting a float in the parade and hoping to have the winners of the Ramble on the float.

NEW BUSINESS:

Murray Pounds, Director of Parks and Recreation

Murray has been looking into Knockerball. Here's the deal, there are about 20 of these plastic balls that fit over a person's body. 1 ball is $5. We would put them in the field by Diamond 4. I think on Saturday and Sunday we would have people lined up to get into these things.

Discussion. Murray stated the company would have a waiver, there would be 2 different size balls and they would need a certificate of insurance. They might need access to electric. We could charge them $200.

Matt Barthelmass thinks this is a great idea.

Alvin reminded everyone about the committee picture.
