- Ryan Spencer, City Planner gave a quick update with respect to the planning process.
 - An Expression of Interest (EOI) has been distributed to solicit consultant services for public engagement sessions.
 - Contact was made with Debbie Corson, the Service Learning Coordinator at Meramec College. Ryan Spencer will meet with a group of students in some capacity during the early Spring Semester for an engagement exercise.
- Stakeholder Interview Questions were discussed and the following questions were developed.
 - What are Kirkwood's best assets?
 - What are the 3 biggest challenges facing Kirkwood in the next 20 years?
 - If you could change something about Kirkwood what would you change?

- Is there an aspect of Kirkwood that is headed in the wrong direction? Is so, how would you change it?
 - What is your overall impression of the Parks & Recreation System?
 - Is Kirkwood underserved in terms of a specific type of commercial business? Is there a specific part of Kirkwood that is currently underserved with retail and office opportunities?
 - Are you satisfied with the appearance of Kirkwood's streetscaping environment?
 - If you could focus attention on any one area, besides Public Education/Public Safety, what you focus attention on?
- The next meeting is scheduled for December 15th at 9AM.
