Donations are welcome. Produced and hosted by the Kirkwood Arts Commission, with generous support from Kirkwood Parks & Recreation, the Kirkwood ARTS Foundation, the Webster-Kirkwood Times, and the Clifford Willard Gaylord Foundation.

Art at the Station is a community visual arts program hosted and produced by the Commission at the historic Kirkwood Train Station, 110 W. Argonne Drive in downtown Kirkwood. Exhibits are free and open to the public. Donations are welcome. Art can be viewed when the Station is open for passengers.

This month’s Artist/illustrator is Kirkwood native Bryan Haynes. He exhibits paintings illustrating stories of towns west of Kirkwood strung along the Missouri River. Bryan Haynes’ work has been described as New Regionalism. Since graduating from the Art Center College of Design in California in 1983 his artwork has been represented by Bernstein & Andriulli in New York, Ron Sweet in San Francisco, and Foster Represents in St. Louis. His work will be on display through March 29th.

2020 Photo Competition: The fourth annual photo competition will be co-sponsored by the Kirkwood Arts Commission and the Department of Parks and Recreation. The theme this year is “Faces and Places of Kirkwood”. Look for details to be announced in April.

The mission of the Historic Kirkwood Train Station Foundation is to seek ongoing funding sources for the needed maintenance and construction projects to preserve our community’s treasured icon.

Thanks to many generous donors, the Foundation has raised nearly $600,000 of the $3.8 million needed for the planned restoration of the city’s historic icon to better serve the community and the thousands of train travelers who pass through its doors each year. Originally built in 1893, the station was last renovated in 1941.

We need your financial support to reach our fundraising goal.

Restoration Project Includes:

- Design & preliminary engineering
- New roof
- New geothermal heating/cooling system
- Tuckpointing
- Window & door restoration
- Restrooms, expanded & ADA-compliant
- Interior restoration (flooring, walls, ceiling, lighting, etc.)
- Site improvements & utilities
- New ancillary storage building
- New covered platform
- Outdoor plaza & landscaping

TOTAL ESTIMATED COST: $3,800,000

“The Kirkwood Train Station is so important to the history and the current City of Kirkwood that it was easy for us to contribute to the Capital Plan for its restoration.”

— Ron and Hanna Evens
